Message of President Nangolo Mbumba on the occasion of the 30th anniversary of Freedom Day in South Africa

The President of the Republic of Namibia, His Excellency Dr. Nangolo Mbumba extends his congratulations to the people of South Africa on the celebration of 30 years of electoral democracy and freedom from apartheid rule.

In his message of felicitations to the people and the Government of the Republic of South Africa, President Nangolo Mbumba says:

“Thirty years ago, the world witnessed the ushering in of a new era of equal representation and non-racialism in South Africa. On this day, we remember and pay tribute to the gallant heroes and heroines whose invaluable sacrifices paved the path towards freedom, unity and democracy.

On behalf of the Government and People of the Republic of Namibia, I would like to extend profound congratulations to the Government and the People of the Republic of South Africa on the momentous occasion of the 30th anniversary of Freedom Day.

As we join our South African brothers and sisters in celebrating this auspicious occasion, I wish to further seize this opportunity to reaffirm our commitment towards further strengthening the excellent bilateral relations and the strong bonds of friendship and loyalty that exist between our two countries, Governments and people. ”
